Outlook

Net interest margin expected to see modest expansion

- Average CD costs will decrease due to rollover of higher cost CDs
- Loan and deposit rate environment will remain competitive
- Tight yield curve will limit NIM expansion

Do not expect loan sales to return until the 1st or 2nd quarter of 2021

High single-digit balance sheet growth should drive further improvement in profitability

Flat expense levels

- Consolidation of offices in all regions will provide modest cost savings offset by higher HR costs

Projected loan losses:

- Expect $250,000-$500,000 in loan losses on pre-COVID hotel loans
- Too early to determine COVID related loan losses
- 87% of loans that had April deferments are paying
- Expect to increase ALLL by 5bps

Future Branch Activity:

- Edison, New Jersey Branch – opening December 1, 2020
- Bensonhurst, Brooklyn New York Branch – opening 2021
- Chinatown Square Branch in Chicago – closing February 2021

Non-GAAP Reconciliation: Tangible Common Equity and Tangible Assets

Some of the financial measures included in this presentation are not measures of financial performance recognized by GAAP. These non-GAAP financial measures include “tangible common equity to tangible assets,” “tangible book value per share,” and “return on average tangible common equity.” Our management uses these non-GAAP financial measures in its analysis of our performance and believes these are helpful to investors as an additional tool for further understanding our performance. The following table reconciles shareholders’ equity (on a GAAP basis) to tangible common equity and total assets (on a GAAP basis) to tangible assets, calculates our tangible book value per share, and reconciles return on average tangible common equity to its most comparable GAAP measure:

Regulatory Reporting to Financial Statements: Adjusted Core Deposits

Some of the financial measures included in this presentation and in forms 10-Q & 10-K filed with the SEC differ from those reported on the FRB Y-9(c) report. These financial measures include “core deposits to total deposits.” Our management uses this financial measure in its analysis of our performance. The Bank measures core deposits by reviewing all relationships over $250,000 on a quarterly basis. After discussions with our regulators on the proper way to measure core deposits, we now track all deposit relationships over $250,000 on a quarterly basis and consider a relationship to be core if there are any three or more of the following: (i) relationships with us (as a director or shareholder); (ii) deposits within our market area; (iii) additional non-deposit services with us; (iv) electronic banking services with us; (v) active demand deposit account with us; (vi) deposits at market interest rates; and (vii) longevity of the relationship with us. We consider all deposit relationships under $250,000 as a core relationship except for time deposits originated through an internet service. This differs from the traditional definition of core deposits which is demand and savings deposits plus time deposits less than $250,000. As many of our customers have more than $250,000 on deposit with us, we believe that using this method reflects a more accurate assessment of our deposit base. The following table reconciles the adjusted core deposit to total deposits:
